

Meet Liliana Mora

Liliana Mora is an artist, illustrator, and master graphic designer. Her work has been featured in venues throughout the nation. Liliana brings a creative flair to Pushing Boundaries where she can assist our clients with mission and vision graphics, infographics, training and mascot designs, and other marketing materials to promote your school or district. She is also an illustrator for childrens' books and a cover designer for other commercial books in the field of education and industry. Her portfolio is impressive as she strives to push boundaries with the creative vision and expertise that our schools, authors, and consultants can utilize for moving into more visually creative frontiers. Liliana is based in Phoenix, Arizona.

Her most recent book design includes:

