

Meet Jonathon Wennstrom

Jonathon Wennstrom is a principal for Livonia Public Schools in the Metro Detroit area. He has 24 years of experience in education ranging from classroom teacher, high school wrestling coach, theater director, chief academic officer, online instructor and his current and favorite position, elementary school principal. Outside of school, he is a member of Rotary International, and is the president-elect for the Michigan Elementary & Middle School Principals Association (MEMSPA). Jon has presented to both school and business leaders on the topics of relationship building, growth mindset, learning through failure, trust building, supporting and empowering staff, school culture and other leadership essentials. Most recently, Jon was named the 2018 Michigan PTA administrator of the year.
